

Leadership Luncheon Lecture

From Babies to Baby Boomers

Shelley Wilson, a recognized business leader in Hawaii, will share her inspiring story of entrepreneurship. Her near-tragic life-altering experience inspired her to launch a career that has helped thousands in need.

From Babies to Baby Boomers, finding care alternatives for those in need is difficult. The long-term care crisis in Hawaii is here now. A report released in January of this year by the Hawaii Long-Term Care Commission warned of a crisis for the community. The commission reported that Hawaii ranks last in number of long-term care beds available in the U.S. while at the same time Hawaii has the fastest growing aging population in our nation.

Shelley and her team have spent the last sixteen years developing care alternatives to help as many people as they can.

Shelley Wilson

In 1996, inspired by her own experience, Shelley founded Wilson Homecare in Honolulu, Hawaii at the age of 21. She has guided the company's growth into one of the state's most successful homecare agencies. The company has more than 450 employees who provide personal home health care services in residences across Oahu. Shelley created Wilson Care Group, the holding company, in 2011. The operating companies are Wilson Homecare and Wilson Senior Living, a state of the art home for seniors, located in Kailua. She serves on numerous boards, including Kapiolani Medical Center for Women & Children, Chaminade University, East-West Center, Chamber of Commerce, Kahi Mohala Behavioral Health, and Pacific Aviation Museum.

Leadership Luncheon Lecture Series

This is a new seminar series designed to fit into the busy schedules of local leaders in the public and private sectors.

The 21st century will present new challenges to leaders the world over. Our mission at APC is to give business and government leaders of the Asia-Pacific community the knowledge and inspiration they need to cope with the effects of burgeoning populations, increasing development, and increasingly volatile international interactions.

We invite you to come and gain insight into the changes sweeping this important region, and to broaden your perspective on global economics, politics, business, and environmental issues. For the latest luncheon lecture series schedule, please visit <http://www.apchawaii.org> or call (808) 942-0698.

APC is a non-profit, educational institution, established in 2005. Other programs include a two-year intensive course ending in a Masters in Intercultural Leadership (MIL), as well as short-term workshops and certificate programs designed for students to broaden their cross-cultural perspective on leadership styles and issues in the Asia-Pacific region.
