

Leadership Luncheon Lecture

Asian Potential

Since 2010, Hawaiian Airlines has opened five Asian-Pacific gateways. Hawaiian Airlines president and CEO Mark Dunkerley discusses the analysis behind the company's rapid and purposeful diversification into the Asian Pacific market.

Mark B. Dunkerley

Mark B. Dunkerley is the President and Chief Executive Officer of both Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. and its parent company, Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. He was the Chief Operating Officer of Sabena Airlines Group, a consultant with the Robert Roach firm, President, Chief Operating Officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Worldwide Flight Services, and Senior Vice President of British Airway's Latin America and Caribbean division.

Mr. Dunkerley currently serves on numerous boards, including Directors for Airlines for America (A4A), the Hawai'i Visitors and Convention Bureau (HVCB), the National Air and Space Museum and Outrigger Enterprises. In 2014, he received the Airline Strategy Award for Regional Leadership by Airline Business, recognizing his role in transforming Hawaiian Airlines from a bankrupt niche U.S. carrier to a strong and growing global player.

For more information, contact:

ASIA PACIFIC COLLEGE
1616 Makiki Street, Honolulu, HI 96822
(808) 942-0698
apc@apchawaii.org
www.apchawaii.org

Asia Pacific College

Leadership Luncheon Lecture Series

This is a new seminar series designed to fit into the busy schedules of local leaders in the public and private sectors.

The 21st century will present new challenges to leaders the world over. Our mission at APC is to give business and government leaders of the Asia-Pacific community the knowledge and inspiration they need to cope with the effects of burgeoning populations, increasing development, and increasingly volatile international interactions.

We invite you to come and gain insight into the changes sweeping this important region, and to broaden your perspective on global economics, politics, business, and environmental issues. For the latest luncheon lecture series schedule, please visit <http://www.apchawaii.org> or call (808) 942-0698.

APC is a non-profit, educational institution, established 2005. Other programs include intensive courses in Intercultural Leadership, as well as short-term workshops and certificate programs designed for students to broaden their cross-cultural perspective on leadership styles and issues in the Asia-Pacific region.

Advisory Council Members are:

Daniel K. Akaka, Former U.S. Senator, Hawaii
Mr. John Farias, Emeritus Chairman, University of Hawaii Board of Regents
Deane Neubauer, former Chancellor, University of Hawaii at Manoa
Ruth Ono, Emeritus Regent, University of Hawaii Board of Regents and Emeritus Vice President, Queen's Health System.

Members of the Board of Directors are:

Paul Hooper, Emeritus Professor and Former Chairman, American Studies Department, University of Hawaii
Matt Matsunaga, Attorney, Schlack Ito Lockwood Piper & Elkind, and Former Senator, State of Hawaii
Ruth Ota, Former Chief, Public Health Nursing Branch, Department of Health, State of Hawaii
Jai-Ho Yoo, President, Asia Pacific College.

APC Leadership Luncheon Lecture Series (#8)

I would like to attend:

- Friday, November 20, 2015 - 11:30-1:30 pm
The Willows Restaurant

Please send me detailed information on the following:

- Asia Pacific College

Luncheon Cost:

- $30.00

Payment Method:

Check Amount enclosed: _____

Credit _____ Visa _____ MC _____

Card #: _____ Exp: _____

Send to: _____ Home Address _____ Business Address _____

Name Mr./Mrs./Ms _____

Home Address _____ Phone _____

Present Position & Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Mail to:

Asia Pacific College
1616 Makiki Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

Register via email:

apc@apchawaii.org

APC

Leadership Luncheon Lecture Series (#8)

Mark B. Dunkerley
President & Chief Executive Officer
Hawaiian Airlines

Asian Potential

Friday, November 20, 2015
11:30-1:30pm
The Willows Restaurant
901 Husten Street
Honolulu, HI 96826

Asia Pacific College
Honolulu, Hawaii

REGISTRATION FORM